Join us for

Generations in the Workplace, led by Mr. Charles Mazzitti, Executive Director of Mazzitti and Sullivan EAP
Services, Inc in State College.

This is a workshop designed to help professionals understand how the differences between the generations can inform how we work with our colleagues, how we treat our patients, and how we as professionals can better shape the future through a greater understanding of our generational influences.

Register online at <http://ginblaircounty.org>
or use registration form.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: OCTOBER 25, 2019

For questions, email info@ginblaircounty.org

By the end of this training attendees will gain a greater knowledge of how cultural, historic, social, and educational experiences inform the way in which the various generations work and engage; how our biases and differences in communication styles can inform our perceptions of other generational groups; how professionals can more effectively communicate and work within a variety of generational spheres; and much more.

About Chuck Mazzitti

Chuck Mazzitti is the Executive Director of Mazzitti & Sullivan EAP Services, Inc. This private counseling and consulting agency provides Employee Assistance Program and Crisis Response services to more than 500,000 persons throughout the United States. Mazzitti and Sullivan EAP Services is part of the Mazzitti and Sullivan system of behavioral health services programs located in central Pennsylvania, and was established in 1983.

Mr. Mazzitti's responsibilities include: development and implementation of Employee Assistance Program services for federal and state government agencies, county human service agencies, school districts, hospitals, and business and industry; development and presentation of training programs on a variety of issues for the same aforementioned groups; and supervisor/management training on employee-based behavioral problems.

Mr. Mazzitti received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Social Welfare from Pennsylvania State University in 1980. He lives near Hershey with his wife Janice. They are the proud parents of 5 children.
